BY PLANE

Once you're here...

WHEN IT COMES TO THE PHOTOGRAPHY part of your holiday, it's an à la carte menu. If you want to shoot from dawn to dusk, we'll do that. Or just at dawn and dusk, if you prefer. We can fill all day, every day for you but maybe you'd prefer to spend some time exploring our library of photography (and cookery) books. Or getting some lessons from Niall. Or just walking the quiet lanes through the traditional bocage landscape that surrounds our house and meadow. If you or your travelling companion are more interested in food than photography, Charlotte will spend time sharing her award-winning chocolate-making skills, as well as her patisserie secrets, and visit markets and local producers with you.

We have two hides (blinds) one of which is on eye-level with a drinking pool, attracting birds during a dry spell. The meadow is alive with insects, including several species of grasshopper and cricket, marbled white, commas, gatekeepers and other butterflies. In August, wasp spiders and one or two preying mantids appear. We can visit the riparian woodland of the nearby Loire to find a different range of species and landscapes - and even explore sections of it by canoe. Bee eaters nest in its banks and hunt above our garden - sometimes up to 50 at a time.

It gets hot in July and August, but we've created a number of shaded seating areas around the garden and meadow where you can work on pictures, read or just recover from another large lunch, until the sun drops lower in the sky. Be ready to head out at a minute's notice though; when a hay mower starts up we can be sure of photographing white storks and cattle egrets as they come to feed on the rodents and crickets disturbed by the mower. After dinner, we can stay out to enjoy the Milky Way. When the nightingales and crickets are singing, the meadow is a lovely place to be.

So, the choices are yours. We will have a chat on Zoom before your visit so that we can create a programme and discuss menus, just as you want them- to make a Retreat to remember.

You take the pictures, we take care of the rest

WITH MANY YEARS OF HOSTING EXPERIENCE BEHIND US, we've become pretty adept at ensuring everyone is happy and has what they need. And for us, there is no better venue to extend our particular brand of hospitality than in our charming home and secluded meadow here in rural Nièvre.

When you stay with us, you have the use of the top floor of our house - about 50 sq. m- which comprises a bedroom with two single beds fixed together, a lounge area with a comfortable double bed, and a shower room with toilet. A wall and curtains separate the bedroom from the lounge. If it's hot, we provide cooling fans and there is always the option, during very hot weather, to sleep out in the cabin in the garden.

There is a 55" Sony OLED screen to which you can connect your laptop to view your photos. Of course, you're welcome to come downstairs and be with us while we get things ready for dinner. Normally, we will eat dinner in the garden, often joined by French or Dutch friends, some down from Paris, others who live in Saint-Seine year-round. We think it makes conversation more interesting and wide-ranging.

This is your home-from-home- except that we take care of things for you so you can concentrate on the important business of relaxing and creating. It's hard to do one without the other.

You needn't worry about driving either; Niall will take you to all the locations you want to visit as well picking you up from Le Creusot TGV and returning you there at the end of your Retreat.

Questions, answered

Is there wifi?

Yes, we have fast fibre optic, download 600 Mb/s.

Yes, of course. The journey from Calais (avoiding Paris) takes about 9 hours. From Cambrai, about 6.

This all sounds great but one-to-one service like this never comes cheap. So, how much for a week, "Chez-vous"?

Per person, GBP 2300, regardless of the season.

I don't have much faith in our rail services these days. Can I just drive to you instead?

And that includes everything you mention here?

Yes, except your travel from home to Le Creusot and back, and alcohol.

Can you take more than two guests at a time?

In some circumstances, we can take three, depending on sleeping arrangement. Just ask.

I like the sound of these holidays, but to be honest, I'm not much of a photographer. I'd like to learn though, but is this ok for beginners?

Yes. We have the time to figure out what you want to learn and which teaching method suits you best. During a 30 year career, Niall has had lots of practice at teaching to all skill levels and is famously open about how he creates his own work.

Where can I learn about availability?

From our website, mail shots and on page 9 of this PDF.

I have quite specific dietary needs. Is that going to be a problem?

Charlotte has wide experience of producing delicious food for those with allergies and intolerances. Just tell us beforehand
